THE AKRON-UC IRVINE SERIES

Wednesday's game marks the first meeting in series history between the Zips and the Anteaters. In fact, the Zips have only lined-up against one team at the Sun Bowl Invitational, Maryland Eastern Shore. Akron holds a 4-1 all-time series advantage over UMES Hawks, winning four straight games.

SCOUTING THE ANTEATERS

The defending Sun Bowl Champion, UC Irvine, enters the game with a 5-8 overall record after an 85-79 overtime loss to New Mexico State on Monday night, and have played eight of the last nine games on the road or at a neutral site. UC Irvine averages 63.7 points per outing on 42.0 percent shooting from the floor and a 31.8 percent effort from beyond the 3-point arc, draining 6.4 triples a game. In addition, the Anteaters shoot 64.6 percent from the free throw line with 10.4 bonus buckets a night.

UC Irvine has one player scoring in double figures and one player just below 10 points per game. Leading the way for the Anteaters is Jaron Martin, who replaced his 26-point career-high performance against Cal with a 33-point effort on Monday at New Mexico State. He averages 13.9 points per game on 41.1 percent shooting from the field and 37.0 percent rate from beyond the 3-point with 27 made 3-pointers. He is the team leader in assists (63) and steals (12). Ioannis Dimakopoulos follows with 9.9 points per game on a team-best 47.2 percent shooting from the field, and 37.5 percent from deep with nine triples. He ranks third on the team with 11 blocked shots, while Tommy Rutherford leads with 16 rejections and Jonathan Galloway has 14 blocks. Galloway and Rutherford also leads the squad on the glass, securing 6.3 (82) and 5.3 (69) rebounds per game, respectively.

Defensively, the Anteaters allow their opponents to score 67.7 points per game and limit them to shooting just 38.5 percent from the floor and 34.3 percent from 3-point range, allowing 7.5 long distance buckets a night. UC Irvine has caused 143 turnovers (11.0 to/g) with 61 steals (4.7 stl/g) and 55 blocked shots (4.2 blk/g). The Bulldogs have also outrebounded the opponent 496-464, holding a 2.5 edge on the glass.

On the Dec. 19 edition of the poll, the Zips rank 17th, climbing seven spots from a week ago after defeating Marshall 99-88. (AP/USA)

How Hard is it to Win 20 Games?

The Akron Zips are the only team in the MAC to have won 20-plus games in each of the last 11 seasons. In fact, only nine teams have reached 20 wins in each of the last 11 seasons. Akron, BYU, Duke, Gonzaga, Kansas, Louisville, North Carolina, Ohio State and San Diego State were the only teams on this list to crack 20 wins last season. Taking things one step further, the Zips were one of only five programs with at least 21-plus wins in each of the last 11 seasons. Akron, Duke, Gonzaga, Kansas and Ohio State were the only teams on this list to reach 21 wins last season.

On the coaching side of 20-win seasons, head coach Keith Dambrot is currently 10th among active coaches with current 20-plus game winning streaks (11). Dambrot's 11-straight 20-win seasons is the seventh-longest streak at the same program. Only one coach, Mark Few, Gonzaga (17), has posted a longer run of 20-win seasons solely at mid-major program.

A CLOSER LOOK AT THE OTHER POTENTIAL OPPONENTS

Depending on the outcomes of Wednesday's games, Akron has the opportunity to play either Maryland Eastern Shore or Texas El Paso for the first time in program history.

Texas El Paso

Texas El Paso enters the Don Haskins Sun Bowl with a 2-7 overall record and 79-23 all-time record at the event. The Miners have won the tournament 31 times, including eight championships since 2000. The Miners are led by seventh-year head coach Tim Floyd (Louisiana Tech, '77), who owns a 124-84 at UTEP and 451-265 career mark, spanning 23 seasons.

The Miners average 72.0 points per game with a 46.2 shooting percentage from the floor and 37.0 effort from beyond the 3-point arc with 7.6 made 3-point FG per game. Three players are scoring in double figures as Omega Harris leads the way with 17.5 points per game on 48.0 percent shooting (48-of-100) and 37.8 percent of his shots from beyond the arc (17-of-45). Dominic Artis follows with 14.8 points per game while draining 41.4 percent of his shots (46-of-111), including a 31-of-51 effort from deep. The final double-digit scorer, Matt Willms averages 10.6 points per game on 60.9 percent shooting from the field (39-of-64).

Defensively, UTEP holds its opponents to 75.2 points per game on 48.1 percent shooting from the floor and just 41.7 percent from 3-point range. The Miners caused 134 turnovers (14.9 to/g) with 54 steals (6.0 stl/g). The Miners have been outrebounded by 2.2 rebounds per game on the glass, pulling down 32.9 rebounds per game.

Maryland Eastern Shore

MDES enters the Don Haskins Sun Bowl with a 1-11 overall record. The Hawks are led by third-year head coach Bobby Collins (Eastern Kentucky, '91), who owns a 29-48 overall record at Maryland Eastern Shore and 94-105 career mark in seven seasons as a head coach.

The Hawks have been outscored 960-784, allowing the opposition to average 80.0 points per game. MDES scores 65.3 points per game with a 39.8 shooting percentage from the floor (288-of-723) and a 33.8 effort from beyond the 3-point arc (88-of-260) with 7.3 made 3-point FG per game.

Two players are scoring in double figures as Ryan Andino leads the way with 13.7 points per game on 39.8 percent shooting (53-of-133). He is a threat from deep, knocking down 43.0 percent of his shots from beyond the arc (46-of-107). Bakari Copeland follows with 13.4 points per game on 40.3 percent shooting from the floor (58-of-144) and 38.7 from deep (12-of-31). Defensively, MDES caused 167 turnovers (13.9 to/g) with 78 steals (6.5 stl/g). The Hawks average 31.6 rebounds per game, but arhave been outrebounded 465-379.

CHASING HISTORY

Head coach Keith Dambrot is knocking at the door to become the winning-est coach in Akron Basketball history. In his 13-year career at UA, Dambrot has collected 286 career wins in 419 games, which is two wins shy of tying the all-time win mark held by Russell Beichly. Beichly coached the Zips from 1941 to 1959. In those 19 seasons he reached 288 wins in 432 games. In addition, Dambrot is just six wins away from 400 career victories as a collegiate coach and 14 wins shy of his 300th all-time at Akron.

REBOUNDING AFTER A LOSS

Since the start of the 2004-05 season, the Zips have been one of best teams in the nation when it comes to rebounding after a loss. Excluding season-ending losses, Akron is 89-32 (.736) following a loss. In head coach Keith Dambrot's 13-year tenure, Akron has only posted 24 losing streaks. In fact, of those 24 losing streaks, 15 have been just two games and 18 have consisted of two or more games on the road (road/neutral site). UA has never lost more than four-straight games under Dambrot. Akron has not lost five-in-a-row since Jan. 5-19, 2002, under former head coach Dan Hipsher.

Junior guard Jimond Ivey adds 9.5 points per game and senior forward Kwan Cheatham, Jr. chips-in 8.9 points per game with a team-best 6.8 rebounds (75) and 10 blocked shots.

STREAKING ZIPS

Akron established a six-game winning streak early in the season, and the Zips currently own a 23-game winning streak at Rhodes Arena. The Zips have rattled-off six consecutive wins at Rhodes Arena over American, Radford, Georgia Southern, Adrian, Coppin State, and Marshall. Akron's current home court winning streak dates back to the 2014-15 season. Akron won the final two home games that season over Ohio and Northern Illinois, and posted an unblemished 15-0 record in 2015-16 at Rhodes Arena. The Zips are 168-23 with an 88.0 winning percentage at the JAR.

THRIVING IN A NEW ROLE

With the loss of two starters and a third key player from the Akron's 2015-16 MAC Championship run, more minutes have been available for junior guard Jimond Ivey, and he has made the most of his time on the court. Ivey has played himself into the starting lineup after three starts due to an injury to point guard Noah Robotham. So far, Ivey has taken full advantage of the new role, making four starts in 11 games and scoring in double digits in six games, including a career-high 20 points and a personal best 11 rebounds. In addition, he posted his first career double-double against American that included 12 points and a career-best 11 boards.

In 11 games, Ivey averages 25.5 minutes with 9.5 points on 53.1 percent shooting from the field. He drained 34-of-64 shots and is third on the squad with 5.6 rebounds per game, 62 total rebounds with 48 defensive and 14 offensive.

FIRE AND ICE

We are not talking hot and cold, rather high intensity and fast play mixed with a methodical calculated approach to describe Akron's backcourt. The combination of junior guards, Antino Jackson and Noah Robotham, provide the Zips' with that type of leadership. Both, Jackson (Fire) and Robotham (Ice) are a threat with or without the ball in their hands.

Jackson, and his high-energy approach, is always in attack mode. He has the ability to beat an opponent off the bounce and uses a devastating step back to generate several different types of open looks. He is third in team scoring (10.9 ppg), and has buried 21 long distance field goals. He shoots 43.8 percent from the field and 40.4 from deep and has a second-best 10 steals, while adding 2.5 rebounds and 2.4 assists per game.

On the other hand, Robotham has a methodical approach to navigating the offense and picking apart defenses. His change of pace during play keeps defenders on their heels as he contributes a 11.2 points per outing following a career-high 27-point performance against Marshall. He has 19 assists and six steals. He shoots 46.3 percent from the floor and a team-best 43.5 from behind the 3-point arc, burying 20 triples this season.

FRESH START

The Akron Zips continue to improve its bench play this season with the help of five newcomers, two freshmen and three redshirt freshmen, whom are beginning to see more and more action. Playing in all 11 games are freshmen Tavian Dunn-Martin and Michael Hughes, while second-year freshmen, Emmanuel Olojakpoke, Daniel Utomi, and Craig Eubanks are starting to see their roles increase.

Dunn-Martin has made an immediate impact from the outside, draining 13-of-33 long distance shots for a 39.4 3-point FG shooting percentage. In 149 minutes, Dunn-Martin owns a 40.0 FG shooting percentage (20-of-50) en route to adding 5.7 points per game. As a backup point guard, Dunn-Martin has dished out 15 assists and made 13 trips to the charity stripe, draining 10 bonus buckets for an 76.9 free throw percentage.

Hughes has logged 107 minutes in the center position, second most of the newcomers. He has scored 24 points and pulled down 18 rebounds in 9.7 minutes per game. Hughes has nine blocked shots and four steals.

Olojakpoke is a rim protector who managed to block four shots against Coppin State. In 47 minutes played, he is shooting 60 percent on 9-of-15 shots from the field and has pulled down 16 rebounds with five blocks.

Meanwhile, Utomi has a knack for scoring the ball. He is 9-of-17 from the floor for a 52.9 shooting percentage, including a 40 percent effort from downtown. In 49 minutes of action, Utomi has connected with 4-of-10 shots from deep while adding seven rebounds, two steals, two assists, and a blocked shot.

Rounding out the newcomer play is Eubanks. He has provided a spark in 26 minutes of work, knocking down 3-of-5 shots, including 2-of-4 from long distance for eight points with one rebound and one blocked shot.

MR. CHAIRMAN

After serving three seasons on the NCAA Men's Basketball Rules Committee, Akron men's basketball head coach Keith Dambrot was named the new chairman of the committee, starting with the 2015-16 season. Dambrot is currently in his second season as chairman, replacing former chairman and Belmont head coach Rick Byrd, who completed his term on the rules committee in August 2015. The NCAA Men's Basketball Rules Committee is comprised of 13 coaches and administrators, who assess both current and proposed rules to promote consistency and fair play in the game. The committee meets once a year and votes on changes every other May unless there's a pressing issue about player safety.

The Dambrot Coaching Tree

A key part to Keith Dambrot's success has come from the knowledge and expertise of his coaching staff. Comprised completely of individuals that have played for him, both at Akron and previous coaching stops, the current staff includes Zips' assistant coaches Terry Weigand (Tiffin, 1985-86), Rick McFadden (Akron, 2003-05) and Charles Thomas (Eastern Michigan, 1987-89), as well as director of basketball operations Steve McNees (Akron, 2008-11).

Shaka Smart, a Dambrot assistant from 2004-06, was at VCU for six seasons and led the Rams to the 2011 Final Four. Now, Smart is in his second year as head coach for Texas. Lamont Paris (2004-10) enters his seventh season with the Big 10 Wisconsin Badgers, while Jeff Boals (2006-09) left Ohio State to pursue a head coaching position at Stony Brook.

Dambrot's Basketball Tradition

Dambrot's blood is rich with basketball tradition. His uncle, Irwin Dambrot, played for the 1950 City College of New York (CCNY) squad, which is the only school to win both the NCAA Tournament and NIT in the same season. Irwin was the MVP of the NCAA Tournament that season and the No. 1 draft pick (selected seventh overall) by the New York Knicks that same year. Dambrot's father, Sid, starred at Duquesne during the 1952, '53 and '54 seasons. The Dukies competed in the NCAA Tournament and the NIT in '52, as well as, the NIT in the '53 and '54 campaigns.

STARTING THE SEASON OFF RIGHT

The Zips are 70-46 (.603) all-time in season openers with a 56-12 (.824) home record and 14-34 (.292) on the road. UA is 8-5 (.615) when opening the season under Dambrot, standing 5-1 (.833) at home and 3-4 (.429) on the road. In addition, the Zips own a 95-21 (.819) home opening record at Rhodes Arena and have been winners in the last 14-of-15 home opening games.

The 2015-16 Akron Zips started the season with a 3-0 winning streak and completed a 10 game winning streak. The three consecutive wins to open the season marks the best start in the Division I era of Akron men's basketball history and the 10-game streak stands as the second-best under Dambrot behind a 19-game run in 2012-13. In addition, the 13-2 start was the best opening to a season in Akron basketball's Division I era, while the Zips win over the Arkansas Razorbacks marks the fifth consecutive season the Zips posted a win over a Power Five Conference opponent.

THE ZIPS LEBRON JAMES SHOE DEAL AND NEW LOOK

Since June 2008, the Akron men's basketball program has been partnered with Nike under which the Zips' shoes, game uniforms, warm ups and accessories are licensed under the Nike and LeBron James Trademarks. The Zips are just one of two college programs in the country that are partnered with the LBJ line of Nike equipment, the other is Ohio State.

The Akron Zips men's basketball team will be sporting new uniforms in 2016-17. The new look represents a reinvigorated pride in our University, our City, and Zips Athletics. The new design for both home and away were inspired by the "Pride of the City" slogan that men's basketball will carry throughout the season. The goal is to strengthen the pride for the University of Akron within community.

The home uniforms are white with dark blue trim and accents, while the away are dark blue with white trim and accents. The "Pride of the UniverCity" uniforms display the name Akron in a prestigious old-style script font on the chest with the number(s) below. The script font and numbers are the same color as the jersey top (white/white or blue/blue) and outlined with the opposite color. The inspiration for the script writing and to use Akron on the chest stemmed from tradition and an overwhelming amount of pride for the city of Akron and its University.

The game shorts have three distinguishing marks. The right side of the shorts depicts the Zips' mascot Zippy, and her Fear the Roo head logo, while the left side dons the University's official seal. The final mark on the shorts is the notorious Z logo, which appears on the front waistband.

Keith Dambrot's motivation for success is different than most head coaches at the Division I level. His commitment has seen the Akron basketball program grow into one of the top mid-majors in the nation. This drive doesn't stem from thoughts of career stepping stones, but from his allegiance to his hometown and alma mater.

Dambrot became the 21st head coach of Akron men's basketball on March 10, 2004. On Sept. 23, 2013, he signed a one-year contract extension to be head coach of the Zips through the 2022-23 season.

Dambrot wasted no time putting his stamp on the program and has led Akron to the postseason in nine of the last 11 seasons - participating in the NCAA Tournament in 2009, 2011 and 2013, the National Invitation Tournament in 2006, 2008, 2012, and 2016 the College Basketball Invitational (CBI) in 2010 and the CollegenInsider.com Postseason Tournament in 2014.

His success ranks the Zips with some of the top programs in the nation. Akron is one of only five teams in the country to win at least 21 games in each of the past 11 seasons, joining the likes of Duke, Gonzaga, Kansas and Ohio State. In fact, Akron has won at least 19 games in each of Dambrot's 12 seasons, making the Zips one of 11 programs to do so since the start of the 2004-05 campaign (Duke, Gonzaga, Kansas, Louisville, Michigan State, North Carolina, Ohio State, Pittsburgh, VCU and Wisconsin).

KEITH DAMBROT

- ▶ Head Coach
- ▶ 13th Season at Akron
- ▶ 19th Season Overall
- ▶ Akron '82

UA leads the Mid-American Conference in overall wins since the start of the 2004-05 season (278) and is tied for 30th nationally in overall wins during that stretch.

Dambrot is one of just eight coaches to own an active streak of 11 or more consecutive seasons of 20-plus wins at the same school, and shares the sixth-longest streak of consecutive 20-win seasons with Steve Fisher (San Diego State) and Dave Rose (BYU).

Dambrot has led Akron to the MAC Tournament semifinals in 11-straight years, including eight title game appearances in the last ten seasons. The Zips' run of consecutive semifinal appearances is the longest streak in MAC history.

In his 13 seasons in charge of the program, Akron has amassed a 278-130 (.678) overall record, including a 141-61 (.698) mark in MAC play and a 162-23 (.876) tally in home games (87-14 (.861) in MAC play at home).

In 19 seasons as a collegiate head coach, he owns a 386-200 (.659) overall record. Dambrot enters the 2016-17 season in sixth place in MAC history with a .637 win percentage while coaching in the league (298-164 overall; 278-130 Akron), fourth in overall wins (298), fourth in conference wins (151) and fifth in league games winning percentage (.640, 151-85).

In 2016, Dambrot led the Zips to a 26-9 overall record and a 13-5 conference mark while capturing Akron's third Regular Season MAC Championship. UA continued its run of 11-straight seasons with 20-plus wins, while Dambrot was named 2016 MAC Coach of the Year and NABC All-District Coach of the Year.

In 2013, Dambrot was named the MAC Coach of the Year and the Red Auerbach Coach of the year, as well as a finalist for the Jim Phelan National Coach of the Year award (national COY) and the Hugh Durham Award, which recognizes the nation's top mid-major coach.

Mentoring a total of 35 All-MAC honorees, 14 MAC All-Tournament team selections, five MAC Sixth Man of the Year honors, four MAC Defensive Players of the Year, three MAC tournament MVPs and one MAC player of the year award has highlighted his time at UA.
