Quotes

WSU Head Coach Mike Price:

On the game: "I've never seen so many blitzes in my life from both sides in one game. Purdue seemed to be handling our blitzes in the first half. We didn't think they would blitz as much as they did, so in the second half, we went back to what worked for us all year, and it worked. I feel like our coaching staff did some wonderful halftime adjustments with settling the offense down and firing the defense up."

On the team: "I think we could be one of the best teams ever at Washington State. This was our closest game all year, and we fought through the adversity. This is one of my most satisfying coaching experiences in years."

WSU wide receiver Nakoe McElrath:

On the game: "I was expecting us to win ... whether I got the ball or not, I just wanted us to win. I credit it all to my team. I love my team and I would do anything for us to win."

On the Purdue defense: "They were confusing us a little in the second half, but we just settled down and started to play our game. After we settled down, it felt like we could do whatever we wanted."

WSU QB Jason Gesser:

On the second half: "In the second half I adjusted with the shot-gun, and it seemed to open up everything for us. The O-line did a great job of getting me the time I needed to execute."

On WSU's game plan: "In the first half, we knew what we needed to do, but we weren't executing. I felt like it was on my shoulders to get the right people the ball and let them do what they do best."

Purdue Head Coach Joe Tiller:

On difference in second half: "They kept it in the back end...they did try to release it and throw hot stuff, but we got them with sheer numbers. On the effort level, they played harder than we did in the third quarter, but also, our defense was on the field the whole third quarter."

Purdue QB Kyle Orton:

On the game: "Whenever you have the chance to win and you don't, it's bad."

On next season: "I think the emphasis next year should be passing the ball. This game motivates me for next year, and I hope it motivates the team in the off-season."
